

HEALTH & SAFETY POLICY STATEMENT OHSAS 18001: 2007

Central Demolition Limited is a successful, fast growing and ambitious organisation who are committed to continuously improving Health and Safety. It will operate in a responsible manner ensuring that Health and Safety is paramount to the business and is committed to undertake proactive measures to maximise safety performance.

We recognise our duties under the Health and Safety Work Act (1974), and related legislation to ensure the health and safety of our employees, members of the public, and others who may be affected by the Company's operations.

Central Demolition Ltd provide safe places of work, safe systems of work, adequate information and training for employees to ensure their health and safety, and to safeguard members of the public and others.

While all levels of management are aware of their personal responsibilities for the implementation of this policy, all employees have a duty to take reasonable care to avoid injury to themselves and others affected by their work activities. Employees will co-operate with Management in meeting statutory requirements.

Central Demolition Ltd regard statutory obligations as a minimum standard to be achieved throughout the Company's undertakings; and require all staff to accept and implement the promotion of high standards in health and safety as a fundamental objective.

The Company's H&S Policy calls for continual improvement in its H&S management activities, and the business will be conducted according to the following principles: -

- To comply with all applicable statutory laws and regulations;
- To follow a concept of continuously improving the effectiveness of this H&S management system and make best use of our management resources in all H&S matters;
- To communicate our H&S principles and objectives to all relevant parties;
- To work closely with our customers and suppliers to establish the highest H&S standards;
- To adopt a forward-looking view on future business decisions, which may have H&S impacts;
- To train our staff in the needs and responsibilities of H&S management and related activities;
- To provide the personnel and resources to ensure that the importance of meeting and exceeding customer requirements is communicated and understood throughout our Company;
- To conduct all work to a high professional standard with technical and commercial integrity;
- To prevent injury and ill-health to its employees, and other parties who may be affected by the Company's work and services;
- H&S shall not be compromised for other objectives.

This Policy will be made available to all members of staff and is displayed to all through various media formats including our website, notice boards and inductions.

This Policy will be reviewed as a minimum, annually to monitor its effectiveness and to ensure that it reflects changes in legislation. Interim reviews will also be undertaken as appropriate.
